THE SITUATION IN HAWAII.

Philadelphia Press.—There is little doubt that Mr. Blount is hostile to annexation. All the testimony has concurred that his personal view is opposed to the movement. His action has been in harmony with his feeling. And now that the President makes his Minister the natural interpretation is that he shares his sentiment. If the Administration throws away this chance of acquiring Hawaii it will have a reckoning with the American people and with history. Its course looks as if it wanted to drag the matter while afraid to let go—as if it wanted to take no responsibility while not daring to surrender. That half-hearted, double-sided policy will never work. We must either accept Hawaii or let it alone. If a Democratic Administration, in violation of all Democratic traditions, refuses to accept it, so the much worse for the Administration.

ELEVATOR ACCIDENT.

Two Young Men Quite Badly Hurt This Morning.

Just as The Ledger goes to press an elevator accident occurred at Omar Dodson's.

John Keimer and Patrick Collins were taking fifteen kips of nails up and in attempting to stop the elevator at the second floor something gave way and the cargo and men descended rapidly to the cellar.

Keimer was badly cut about the head and had his wrist sprained.

Collins sustained a broken shoulder and was otherwise lacerated up.

Though the injuries are painful they are not dangerous.

The young men were at once taken to the office of Dr. C. C. Owens where their injuries were dressed.

The elevator is a hydraulic, and as yet the cause of the accident has not been located.

The Governor offered a reward of $300 for the capture of George Harnard, charged with rape in Garrard county, and who $125 for the arrest of Samuel Hark, who so brutally murdered his devoted wife while she was cooking his supper in Newport.

YESTERDAY Drs. John A. Reed, Thomas E. Pickett and Cleon C. Owens went to Germantown and returned with a large amount of growth from the face of Dr. A. H. Pollock. Notwithstanding his age of 84 years, the patient soon rallied and is doing well.

YESTERDAY was the first all-wood-forty-three-inch-inches presiding that we have had this treacherous spring, and as a consequence the leading places were deserted, the street cars were crowded, and thousands sought the green spots and pure air of the suburbs.

The illness of J. M. C. Ballenger, mention of which has been made in The Ledger, a serious turn for the worse yesterday, and last night his family and physician, Drs. Samuel and Strode, were much alarmed about his condition. He is reported better, however, this morning. He is suffering from congestion of the lungs.

MRS SARAH BALL died Saturday morning about 11 o'clock at the residence of E. W. Mitchell, aged about 70. She was a sister of the late T. K. Ball, and the youngest and last survivor of that family. This implies that our people of moderate homes and the workmen of Maysville are laying up about $10,000 a month for rainy weather.

More Than Ten Thousand Dollars Already Subscribed.

The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions for a tobacco factory for what successful in the few hours devoted to the work on Saturday.

Up to now $10,000 had been secured.

The subscription paper is in the hands of John Duley at The State National Bank, where wide-awake citizens of either town or county are invited to call, investigate and subscribe.

Among Saturday's signers were several large tobacco growers of Mason County.

There will be another meeting at the Council Chamber to-morrow evening, and it is hoped that the subscribers who were to throw cold water on the enterprise will be given reserved seats on the front row.

They ought to be placed in a conspicuous position so that they may be seen of all men—and roasted.

But Will Our Court of Claims Take Any Action?

The Court of Claims of Fayette county has appointed a committee to look into the feasibility of constructing an electric railway from Lexington to at least one of the nearby towns in the Bluegrass region.

It is proposed to run the first road to either Paris, a distance of eighteen miles, or to Versailles, which is fifteen miles away.

It is believed by experts that a road can be built to Paris for $100,000, and that the farmers along the line will gladly give the right of way. Could this be done it is claimed by the projectors that the farmers could visit Lexington, make their purchases and attend to whatever other business they have on hand, and get back home with no more cost for railroad fares than they now pay in teaming tolls.

Owing to the topography of the Bluegrass region of Kentucky the scheme to connect all the towns in that section with Lexington by electric railways is considered by the best civil engineers to be entirely feasible. Lines could be cheaply built and easily operated between that city and Nicholasburg, Georgetown, Paris, Winchester and Versailles. At all these points these roads would connect with steam railroads, so that almost the entire population of the Bluegrass country would be accessible to Lexington and Versailles. It is the object to carry heavy passenger loads at a low rate, but freight also. Some of the most enterprising citizens of Lexington are working in connection with the Court of Claims Committee, and that something will be done to advance the interests of the Bluegrass region in the manner named appears to be no sort of doubt. One gentleman, who has given the subject much thought, says that if electric lines could be built to the towns mentioned above, Lexington would within five years have a population of 75,000 souls.

The same thing applies to Maysville, though in less degree.

An electric railway connecting with Mt. Olivet, via Germantown, etc., would be profitable, and so would a line via Washington, Mayfield and Salsburg.

Will the Mason County of Claims appoint a committee to investigate the matter, as Fayette has done?

There is real benefit to the country people in this.

A great row and rampus was raised in the House of Representatives Saturday over the charter for the government of cities of the fourth-class.

The Republican members particularly objected to that clause prohibiting citizens from voting in city elections who had not paid hand, sundry, police tax. This they thought was an attempt to disfranchise the colored vote, or a good portion of it.

Members, Mr. Chandler and others spoke against the clause of the measure, and the majority agreed to put the bill upon its final passage, postponed action and made it a matter for to-morrow.

The Senate was in its usual Saturday shape—quorumless.

The Senate directed to wire absent Senators to appear not later than Tuesday for the consideration of important measures.

IN 1919 wheat growers could get from 75 to 84 1/2¢ per bushel for their wheat in the London market, and England produced about enough of this cereal to supply the home demand. Now $1.60 per bushel is the top price, and the island imports two hundred for every one it grows. The wheat-growing area has been cut down fully 2,000,000 acres, the farming interests generally are only kept from bankruptcy by the cheapness of labor and a shut-down on foreign bread supplies would mean famine.

All this, from the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Republican, can be proved by English statements. Would any Mason county farmer like to emigrate from this land of "tariff robbery" and live under British Free-trade?

A few days ago the new heads of the Treasury Department requested the resignations of a large number of subordinates. All these men were requested to resign on the ground that they were of offensive partisanship in the sense simple that they were Republicans. The fact is the purpose of the present Administration is to remove as many Republicans as they can without trespassing upon the Civil Service laws or stooping to any subterfuge. The manly thing to do is that the Treasury Republicans will be removed because they are Republicans, and therefore offensive, and on no other ground. Good Democrats will be selected to fill these places.

There are said to be 110,000 Chinese in the United States, and of this number more than 6,000 registered under the Geary Law. The failure to register has aroused a little feeling on the Pacific slope, and speaking of the matter Governor FENNER of Oregon said:

The refusal is most undoubtedly the result of collusion between the President and Chinese Minister. If Clayland had insisted that the law must be enforced there would have been no failure to register. It is most probable that the citizens of Oregon first learned of this unpopularity of the Six Companies from the walls of a Chinese washhouse in Astoria. Clayland had then become responsible for whatever trouble may arise. If he had declared his purpose to enforce the law there would have been no failure to register. The Chinese Minister has apparently dictated the policy of the Administration, and he was not probably aware of the fact that articles of impeachment have been preferred against President Wilson for a less offense than Clayland's refusal to strictly enforce the Exclusion Law.

Meanwhile, those who oppose Chinese wages should remember that the President is a "Democratic Administration" that encourages the Chinaman to come and pitch his tent here.

IN A FERMET.

The Streets of Madrid Filled With Excited People.

Republicans Outwitted in the Cortes by the Ministerialists.

Republicans Withdraw from the Building and are Chased—The Spanish Government Takes Precautions.

MADRID, May 15.—After over six hours of continuous session, the Cortes adjourned at 9:15 o'clock Friday night. The ministry have won a great victory over the republicans, and the excitement is intense. The deadlock just ended was caused by the attempt of the government to postpone the municipal elections until November. The republicans opposed the bill in the Cortes persistently, but were outwitted Friday night.

The counter motion of the republicans in the Cortes against leaving the government free-handed in the matter of the municipal elections was rejected shortly after 8 o'clock by a vote of 198 to 81. The republicans deplored the result for a few minutes to the lobby to confer, leaving only two to watch the government. Almost immediately after their departure the men on watch summoned them back in all haste. It was too late, however. The original bill postponing the election had already been rushed through the house by the ministers.

The republican members at once withdrew from the building. As they appeared in a body in the street they were cheered repeatedly by the republican crowd. The news spread like magic, and before the deputies reached the republican club thousands were cheering behind the shouting "Long live the Republic!" The balconies near the republican club were thronged with men and women, who answered the cheers of the below by the denational flag.

The club was filled with representative republicans, who at once gathered in conference to decide upon their future line of action.

Meantime some ten thousand men and women had assembled some two hundred yards from the parliamentary building and were waiting for the republicans. The police ordered them to disperse. They refused to do so. The police charged and were repulsed. Three companies of reinforcements were summoned. All charged with drawn sabres, divided the mob, and scattered the groups through side streets.

At 9:15, when the Cortes adjourned, most of the people had been driven off, and the ministerialists were in no danger of being molested.

At 11:30 o'clock the streets near the middle of the city are still crowded. The republican club is surrounded by thousands of cheering men and women. The republican deputies are said to contemplate resigning in a body from the Cortes.

The government is taking all precautions to protect the public buildings. The courtyard of the house of Representatives is filled with mounted gendarmes. The other offices have been similarly garrisoned. The government is taking every precaution to prevent the republicans from manifesting in the city. Orders have been sent to the authorities of all towns in the provinces to prevent the republicans from manifesting. The republican appeals to the people.

ABOUT OHIOANS.
Cincinnati Capitalists Make a Stroke to Get Foreign Trade.
CHICAGO, Ill., May 15.—One of the unique features in connection with the Ohio Exposition is the presence of a foreign visitor in charge of E. E. Schwartzkopf, and controlled by Cincinnati capitalists. The purpose of the department is to explain in their own language to foreign visitors the Ohio exhibits. It is intended to keep complete lists of all the Ohio exhibits, supply free of charge, guides conversant with all languages. Those lists are not quite completed, and the chief share of Mr. Schwartzkopf's attention is as yet confined to this work.

Exhibitors, if they realized the advantages to themselves of this department, would send him much word of annoyance and delay by promptly sending to him, at the Ohio building, a description of their exhibits and their location. Not the least important among the results hoped for is the bringing of the foreign traders into direct communication with the Ohio manufacturers. It is confidently believed that the superior quality of the workmanship shown in many lines of manufacture by Ohio will add materially to the state's foreign trade.

Exhibits Still Coming.
CHICAGO, May 15.—Exhibits from foreign countries are still being received in great numbers at the fair. Thursday the customs officers handled 10,000 worth of goods from England, France, Italy and Spain. Nearly all the stuff received now is in small packages and of great value, such as watches, jewelry and pictures. One of the consignments from France was the big bronze statue of Napoleon, which is to stand in the main rotunda of the building. Domestic exhibits are also being received in large quantities, and the installation of the exhibits is being pushed with the utmost vigor.

Interior Department Decision.
WASHINGTON, May 15.—Assistant Atty.-Gen. Hall, of the interior department, has rendered his opinion, which has been approved by Secretary Smith, holding that the allotments of wives and children of Indians in the Cherokee strip may be removed, not to the head of the family's land.

THE WHEELMEN.

A Parade of Twenty Thousand Bicyclists at the Fair Anticipated May 21.

CHICAGO, May 15.—All bicycle riders, whether belonging to clubs or not, or allied to any organization of wheelmen, will have a day at the World's fair. It is expected that nearly twenty thousand wheelmen will participate. It is anticipated that the parade, for such it will be, will draw one hundred thousand people to the fair on that day.

"Wheelmen's day" is set for Wednesday, May 21, the day after the grand Pullman international road race. Wheelmen will be permitted to make a tour of the grounds on their bicycles, entering at the Midway Plaisance gate, and making exit at such gate as may be deemed advisable.

The privilege of riding through the grounds will last from 10 to 11:30 a. m., and the parade will be escorted through the grounds by a platoon of Columbia guards on wheels, if possible. The same privilege will be granted from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock on the evening of "Wheelmen's day," the parade to carry the regulation lamps. The wheelmen will be escorted through the grounds by the police and land them to the gatekeepers without dismounting.

HORRIBLE.

Ten Timbersmen Fall Three Thousand Feet.

The Men Are Dashed to Pieces at the Bottom of the Shaft.

Indicator Failed to Respond—Engineers thought the Hoist Was Not at the Surface—The Human Freight Carried to the Derrick Above.

Houghton, Mich., May 15.—Ten men were dashed to pieces in the Red Jacket perpendicular shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mill at noon Sunday. The miners were coming up in the cage to dinner, and the engineer hoisted the cage against the timbers of the shaft. The coupling pin broke, and the men and cage were dashed downward over three thousand feet to the bottom.

The men were aboard a skip used in hoisting rock, and when the load of human freight reached the surface, the engineer did not stop in time, but went to the top of the derrick, when it broke loose and fell with a crash to the bottom of the shaft. There is no way of reaching the bottom nor getting the dead men out except by going through another shaft half a mile away, so that it was nearly three hours before the true state of affairs could be ascertained, and it will be some morning before the bodies can be brought to the surface. It is necessary to hoist them five hundred and fifty feet by ropes to reach the level of the next shaft, and then carry them nearly half a mile through the drifts and then hoist them by the man car. The wife of Pope was standing in the shaft house when her husband's body was lowered to the bottom of the shaft. Twelve went down Sunday morning, but one of them was attacked by sickness, and was sent up, accompanied by one of his comrades.

The corner and a jury are now making a thorough investigation. Sunday work in the mines is only done in the line of repairs to machinery and timbering up the walls of the shaft, to admit miners to drill and set new work days. The ten men killed Sunday went down in the morning to timber, and had worked all forenoon. When noon came they stopped in the top of the shaft, and hoisted $150 to the surface to get their dinner. The time in being hoisted is only a minute by the powerful engine used. Ernest Telling, a reliable engineer, says his indicator showed 750 feet more to hoist. It must have failed to respond. The cage went crashing against the roof of the shaft house. There was a crushing of timbers. Something must give way. The coupling pin to the wire cable broke, and some of the miners must have been crushed. Then the bucket fell with lightning velocity over three thousand feet to the bottom of the shaft.

A MISTAKE

Believed to Have Been Dead by Frank Van Loan in Confessing.

COLUMBUS, O., May 15.—That Frank Van Loan, the Columbus Grove murderer and bank robber, has made a fatal mistake in confessing his crime is the belief of those most familiar with all the features of the celebrated case. There has always been much doubt in the public mind as to whether he was the guilty man. The fact that one Jas. Roberts, a man who does not bear much resemblance to Van Loan, was first identified by Cashier Maple as the perpetrator of the crime has been a strong point in Van Loan's favor. His conviction was wholly due to circumstantial evidence, and, while the testimony in its entirety was strong, there were several very weak points in it. Coupled with this was the recently discovered fact that one of the members of the jury was related to an interested party in the case and would have been debarred from serving had the relationship been known. The youth of the prisoner, his previous unfamiliarity with criminal methods and the fact that he has a young wife and little babe were features of the case that would have made an impression upon the jury for Ireland.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 15.—The fifth annual session of the Scottish-Irish Congress of America closed Saturday evening with a public meeting at the city hall, in which Gen. The Republicans Win. PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 15.—By the election of a senator in North Smithfield, the republicans have succeeded in getting the control of the assembly, thus the aid of the lieutenant governor. CHINA WILL RETALIATE.

A Missionary Who Ought to Know Says

Americans Will Be Driven Out.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Rev. J. S. Baldwin, for twenty-two years a Methodist missionary in China, and for nearly a quarter of a century secretary of the missionary board of the Methodist Episcopal church, which has large unrevoked interests in China, said Sunday that he had positive information from dignitaries of the Chinese government and from his own Chinese missionaries, that if the Chinese exclusion act is carried into effect and Chinese are shipped from this country to China, deported simply because they are here without having taken out certificates, the Americans in China will be likewise deported from that country to the United States.

"If the law is declared constitutional by the supreme court," he said, "I anticipate that there will be a speedy exodus, both of missionaries and merchants from China, in retaliation for our sending home Chinese from the United States."

Victory Li Hung Chang, the statesman so much admired by Gen. Grant, has at last come to the conclusion, says Mr. Baldwin, that the only way to defend the honor and dignity of his own nation, in view of the restrictive legislation of this country, is to enter upon the course of retaliation, and treat Americans in China as Chinese are treated in America.

REMARKABLE CASE.

Indiana Man Buried Many Years Ago and Perfectly Preserved.

LAFORT, Ind., May 15.—W. A. Woodbury, aged 35 years, was buried in September, 1848. For two score years and six the whispering pipes have indicated a requiem over the grave. Saturday, by direction of interested relatives, his remains were exhumed. They did not find the body crumbled to ashes, but in a state bordering on almost perfect preservation. The casket had been constructed of tin with a single top. The body had been embalmed with whiskey, which in early days was used exclusively by the undertaking fraternity, and had been closed with a lead. Under the black shroud the flesh was almost in its natural state. The face, exposed to the air which found its way into the casket when it had been partially crumbled away, had become black, but the features were perfect. The eyes were not sunken, and his hair, which fell over his shoulders, had not been changed by the long burial. The shroud was apparently as good as new. The body would weigh about fifty pounds.

Rates for Melons.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 15.—The rate committee of Southern Railway and Steamship association has agreed to add a liability clause in shipping contracts for green fruit, placing the maximum liability at $500 when the shipper pays fifty per cent additional freight. Rates were made to several new points for melons and granite blocks. The petition of merchants for a distinction in rates in flour according to quantity was granted, provided state commissions allow less to be charged on car-loads than on smaller quantities. The committee meets again early in June in Louisville.

Keene a Winner.

NEW YORK, May 15.—It is alleged as a bit of inside history of the big national college that James R. Keene is $1,500,000 richer. Private information it is said, conveyed through a trio of brokers' wives, enabled Keene to pay some old scores and at the same time make a fortune. The ex-Californian is said to have been the mysterious bear in the great crash of this industrial stock.

Fatal Wreck On the Air Line.

MANCATTAN, Ill., May 15.—A west-bound freight train on the Louisville and St. Louis air line railroad ran into an open switch near West Belleville Sunday night. Fireman John Menker and a brakeman were killed outright. Engineer Mahaffey sustained injuries to his right leg and arm. The victims resided at Huntington, Ind.

RACELAND, La., May 15.—A crevasse occurred on Bayou La Fourch, half a mile above La Fourch crossing on the west side. The break broke Sunday evening was fifty feet wide and ten feet deep. Arcadia plantation is adjacent. The bayou has fallen six inches at Raceland in the last twelve hours. No effort has yet been made to close the break.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The announcement comes from Indianapolis that Samuel E. Morse, the new consul general for the United States at Savannah, Georgia, vice consul general, in place of R. M. Hooper, who has been connected with the office ever since 1880.

No Bonds Being Printed.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—A story in circulation to the effect that the bureau of engraving and printing was quietly preparing bonds for the new issue of the same shortly, is without foundation. No bonds save the 4.65 district bonds have been printed for some time.

Pooria Distiller to Shut Down.

POORIA, Ill., May 15.—On the 1st of next month all but two of the thirteen distilleries of this city will shut down by order of the whisky trust officials. Too much stock on hand is given as the cause. This throws out of employment 1,000 men, women and 150 employees of the distilleries.

Princesses Delicately Titled.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The duke of Veragua has received a dispatch from the captain general of Cuba, announcing that the Infanta Delicely is really ill at Havana, but it did not state whether her visit to the United States was abandoned.
